for Infants and Children.

Physicians Prescribe Castoria.

CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: 1st, The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; 2nd, That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; 3rd, It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for castor oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any opium, morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrup, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a medical journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information. Hall's Journal of Health.

"Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."
WILLIAM BELMONT, M. D.,
Cleveland, Ohio.

"I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."
E. A. DUCHANAN, M. D.,
Fallsdale, Pa.

"I take pleasure in recommending your Castoria, having recommended it in many instances, and consider it the best laxative that could be used, especially for children."
NATHANIEL K. KING, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."
H. J. TAPP, M. D.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."
R. E. ESKILDSON, M. D.,
Omaha, Neb.

"Having during the past six years prescribed your Castoria for infantile stomach disorders, I most heartily commend its use. The formula contains nothing deleterious to the most delicate of children."

RAPID TRANSIT

doubtedly make when the time comes * * * the public, in order to get the road, might have to pay for it at least three and a quarter times to a company that has not put a cent into it, but has been drawing good dividends from it.

Other railroads are known to have been financed in that manner, but the Rapid Transit company has never made any such claims nor has it proposed to make them.

"Confiscatory." The Governor suggests, in the event of an extension of our franchise under radically changed conditions that we surrender the right to capitalize several hundred thousand dollars of net earnings in which all of our unpaid dividends are included, and which are not to be reckoned as company property in the valuation should the government exercise its option of purchase.

If this confiscatory principle is to be enforced against the Rapid Transit company, why is it not recommended at this time by him for every other railroad and public service corporation in Hawaii?

Respectfully,
L. T. PECK,
President H. R. T. & L. Co.

Mott-Smith's Statement.

Discussing Mr. Peck's communication, Secretary E. A. Mott-Smith said today:

"It is so denominated in the bond," says Mr. Peck in today's issue of the Advertiser; and, to all appearances, he is correct. For instance the Rapid Transit Company borrows $690,000 which it puts into its plant, thereby increasing the cost of the property by that amount. Thereupon the company may issue stock to its stockholders to the amount of 125 per cent of said $690,000, which the stockholders do not have to pay for, but may receive for nothing because that sum represents an increase in the cost of the property. That is all denominated in the bond. But that is not enough. There is something else in the 'bond' which insures the stockholders of getting, when the franchise expires, the full par value for the stock which they have not paid for, and which they can sell at a pretty fair figure today. This is contained in the provision for a sinking fund to not only retire the $690,000 bonds, but the $690,000 (and 25 per cent additional) stock issued on the strength of borrowing $690,000 which has gone into the cost of the plant. Then again there is something which is not in the 'bond.' In the original franchise there is no provision for the disposal of the property representing all this outlay at the end of the franchise. There is certainly no direct provision that the property shall pass out of the hands of the stockholders into the hands of the territory. It may be then, that at the end of the franchise, the stockholders will receive $690,000 for stock which they never paid for and retain as well the property represented by the outlay of this $690,000 of borrowed money. That omission from the 'bond' adds a very interesting feature to the proposition as a matter of financing and a comfortable assurance to the matter as an investment. But there is just a little doubt as to the legal effect of such omission. So to clear up this point Senate Bill No. 13 (which Mr. Peck says is not the Rapid Transit Company's bill) is introduced, which provides that after January, 1940, the territory may terminate the right of the holder of the franchise to use the public streets, etc., by paying such holder the cost of the property less depreciation and plus existing indebtedness—and get the property. No, not on your life—get only the privilege of terminating the use of the streets, etc. The property apparently remains with the company, an established going concern in fine shape, to whom not to again give the franchise would, at that time, be a burning shame and poor business and lack of regard for the public interest.

terest. It is to be observed that under this arrangement the existing indebtedness which may have already been paid for by its equivalent in stock plus 25 per cent, is again paid for in the exercise of the privilege above described.

"That 'bond' operates peculiarly, too, in regard to the $70,000-$80,000 contributed by the Manoa and Kaimuki people for extensions of the line into their respective districts. It is possible, but not probable, that this sum may be added to the cost of the property and an equivalent amount in stock, plus 25 per cent, presented to the long-suffering and waiting stockholders because of this gift from outsiders. At any rate that is logically possible under the denominations of the 'bond' as described by Mr. Peck. Certainly the people of Manoa and of Kaimuki (and I am one of the latter) got no stock for their outlay.

"Now, taking Mr. Peck's own figures. He intimates that $357,000 common stock and $350,000 preferred stock were paid for in cash. It is presumed that since the preferred stock reached $350,000 there have been no increases therein up to 1912, and that the preferred stock reached that figure prior to 1903. Hence it is presumed that the increases in stock up to 1912 have been in common stock. Now what has happened: $357,500 of common stock has earned in cash dividends (say) $321,286.95 stock dividends 500,000.00

In 12 years at the outside $357,000 has earned $821,286.95

"Now, my idea of a railway franchise is that the investor should be assured of the return of his entire capital at the end of the franchise, plus a reasonable rate of interest yearly; the public of an up-to-date service with justifiable extensions from time to time; then, after satisfying the two foregoing demands, a fair division of surplus profits, if any, between the holder of the franchise by way of bonus and the government by way of compensation for use of valuable rights."

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is her own statement.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."

—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will be your salvation, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

district court, where Mrs. Taylor was arraigned before Judge Clemens. It was developed in the court that Attorney Frank Thompson will act as lawyer for the defendant. Upon his application, the former stewardess was given her liberty upon her own recognizance. She will appear in court Friday morning at ten o'clock to plead guilty or not guilty to the charge brought against her.

May Plead Ignorance.

Although it is not definitely known what line of defense will be taken up in Mrs. Taylor's behalf, it is understood from statements made at the time of her arrest that she will plead ignorance of the contents of the box which was delivered by her to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bishop, tourists stopping at a local hotel, and which was later found to contain enough of the poppy drug to keep an ordinary "hop joint" running for some months. It is alleged by the many friends of Mrs. Taylor in Honolulu that she merely acted as carrier of the box for some people on the Mongolia whose identity has been kept secret, and that she had no intention of trying to smuggle the opium. The local authorities declare, however, that the woman smuggled the opium past the customs officers at the wharf by concealing it in her clothing and that she then visited a local department store and transferred the drug into the box in which it was discovered.

U. S. Marshal C. T. Elliott, who, with his sister, brought Mrs. Taylor from San Francisco, declared this morning that he had experienced no difficulty whatever with his fair pris-

DR. CURTISS HERE FOR LECTURES

Dr. and Mrs. F. Homer Curtiss of Los Angeles, California, arrived in Honolulu this morning on the Wilhelmina. They are world renowned as the founders of "The Order of the 15," and prominent authors of "The Voice of Isis," "Letters from the Teacher," "The Soundless Sound," etc., and need no introduction to those who have known them, and are students of their philosophy. Dr. and Mrs. Curtiss while here will lecture each Sunday morning at the Empire Theater, and each Sunday evening at the Kilohua Art League, under the auspices of the "Home of Truth." Afternoon and evening lectures will be held through the week at Kilohua Art League during their stay, the days, hours and subjects to be announced later. Dr. and Mrs. Curtiss' teaching is on "Christian Mysticism," "Spiritual Philosophy" and "The Science of Being."

Their message is not for any sect or class, but for the whole of Honolulu. It is the message of Christ, addressed to all.

Ministers, teachers, students of all classes and denominations are invited to attend these lectures.

HOUSE GETS MESSAGE 1 FROM PRESIDENT WILSON

Speaker H. L. Holstein of the house this morning received the following message from J. P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, under date of March 6:

"The president greatly appreciates the kind message of congratulation which you and Mr. Woodward sent him on behalf of the house of representatives of Hawaii, and would be glad to have you assure your colleagues that he is especially pleased to receive this evidence of their good will.

"With warmest thanks in the president's behalf, I am sincerely yours,
"J. P. TUMULTY,
"Secretary to the President."

At the opening of the grand opera season in Los Angeles, Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker, the $12,000,000 heiress of Lucky Baldwin, caused a sensation by appearing resplendent in diamonds and furs to the extent of $363,400.

oner. Elliott expressed himself as pleased at being back in Honolulu. He was here about three years ago, he stated, on a similar errand. He and his sister are stopping at the Royal Hawaiian and will probably return to the coast upon an early steamer.

TO THE PUBLIC:

In soliciting your business, I take this position: An auctioneer when conducting auction sales of real estate, leases, mortgages, sales or commissions' sales, can work for but one party—the person who is disposing of the property, whether of his own free will or through an act of the courts.

I personally inspect each property which I am authorized to sell. I have a working force composed of clean-cut business men representing the following nationalities: Portuguese, Japanese, Chinese—men who are recognized salesmen and who stand well with their people.

I sell only on commission. I do not buy to sell again. I realize for my customers the highest figure it is possible to get. I have the reputation of securing for clients the last cent a property will fetch. A stenographic record of conversations concerning auction sales of property will be kept. I understand all of the details wanted by attorneys in their legal cases in relation to the auction sales of property. I solicit your business, promising prompt and careful attention to all matters entrusted to me.
